Turin, Novemb. 14. N. S.

THE Duke of Savoy, upon Advice of my Lord Peterborough's being arriv'd at Milan in his way hither, put off his intended Journey to the Frontiers, in order to give his Lordship an Audience before his Departure: Since which, his Royal Highneſs, accompany'd by the Generals Rhebinder and St. Remi, ſet out to take a View of Suza and other Frontier Places, and was expected back at La Venerie the Nineteenth. The Prince of Piemont has had a ſlight Indiſpoſition, but is now pretty well recover'd. The Marquis of Caraglio, who attended his Imperial Majeſty at Milan, is return'd, well ſatisfied with the Honours he receiv'd.

Vienna, Novemb. 21. N. S. According to our laſt Advices from Inſpruck, the Emperor was expected there Yeſterday. They add, That his Imperial Majeſty had been pleas'd to ſignifie to the Baron de Seilern, Miniſter of the Czar of Muſcovy, his Reſolutions of maintaining a good Correſpondence with the Emperor his Maſter; and that if he had any Complaints to make, they ſhould be inquir'd into, and Satisfaction given him. The Envoy of King Auguſtus, who has been here theſe two Months, is preparing to ſet out for Conſtantinople, upon Advice, that the Port had acknowledg'd his Maſter for King of Poland. They are aſſur'd, that the Court has receiv'd Accounts from Wallachia and Tranſilvania, that the King of Sueden is like to continue at Bender this Winter, and that the Ottoman Port will endeavour to conclude a Peace between his Swediſh Majeſty and the Czar. The Troops of the Neutrality, that were in Sileſia, are ſeparated, and the Imperial Regiments are gone into Winter-Quarters in the Neighbouring Towns. The Prince Palatin, Great Maſter of the Teutonick Order, went Yeſterday for Breſlau, in order to be preſent at the Diet intended to be held there. Count Philip of Dietrichſtein, Maſter of the Horſe to the Emperor, ſet out this Morning for Francfort, where Count Staremberg, Preſident of the Chamber, will be in a ſhort time, in order to aſſiſt at the Coronation. Some Advices from Germany ſay, that the Emperor will make great Efforts towards carrying on the War with more Vigour than ever; and that the four Aſſociated Circles have, at the Inſtance of his Imperial Majeſty, reſolv'd to augment their Troops, which they hope may have a good Effect in the preſent Conjuncture. The Recruits for the Forces are continu'd here, and in the Neighbouring Places, with very good Succeſs. The States of Lower Auſtria were to aſſemble the Twenty-fourth of the laſt Month, to receive the Propoſitions that ſhould be made them on the Part of his Imperial Majeſty.

Dreſden, Novemb. 20. N. S. They write from Leopold in Poland, of the Twenty-fifth paſt, that the King of Sueden had deſired Leave of the Port to repair to Conſtantinople, having ſeveral Matters of Conſequence to propoſe to that Court; that thereupon the Body of Turks lately arriv'd at Bender, had receiv'd Orders to be in a Readineſs to attend that Prince thither. Letters from Lemberg in Poland, of the Thirtieth paſt, adviſe, That a Party of Dragoons of the Crown Army, in a Quarrel which had happen'd between them and ſome of the Muſcovite Troops, had bound ſeveral of the latter Hand and Foot, and ſent 'em to Lemberg. Thoſe Letters add, That the Lithuanian Parties grow dayly more numerous, and make Excurſions as far as Lublin, where they lately ſeiz'd ſome Officers belonging to the Crown-Army, with the Soldiers under their Command, and carried them off Priſoners. They write from Warſaw, of the Sixth Inſtant, that at length the Turkiſh Troops were broke up from the Camp, wherein they had continued ſo long, on this ſide of the Danube, and were by Order of the Grand Vizir retir'd to their reſpective Winter-Quarters; as were likewiſe the Tartars. On the Twentieth Inſtant parted from this Place a new Train of Artillery, conſiſting of twelve Pieces of Cannon being twenty-four Pounders, which are to be Tranſported to Pomerania.

Hague, Decemb. 1. N. S. This Morning his Excellency the Earl of Strafford has been in Conference with the Grand Penſionary. Letters from Mons of the ſame Date adviſe, that the States of Haniault had met there the Second of this Month. A Body of Two hundred Men had been detach'd from thence to diſlodge the Enemy from a Poſt near that Place, and they talk ſtill of fortifying the little Town of Binche. The Convoy of Forage and Proviſions that parted from Namur three Weeks ſince, ſtop'd within a League off that Place, not daring to proceed, though Guarded by a Body of eight thouſand Men, being under apprehenſions, that they may be attack'd by the Garriſons of Mons and divers other Places, which hold themſelves in a readineſs to march for that purpoſe. It has been thought convenient to add ſome new Works to the Fortifications of Mortagne and St. Amand; a great number of Men are now employ'd therein, and a conſiderable Sum of Mony has been ſent from Tournay for this Service.

Dartmouth, Novemb. 25. Yeſterday came in here the Golden James, of and for Pool, Thomas Young, Commander, from Newfoundland in Seventeen Days, who parted with the Fleet two Days after he left the Land, and has not ſeen any of them ſince. Came in alſo the Diligent Privateer of Guernzy, Captain Moſier Commander, having been out but two Days, and forc'd in here by bad Weather, as is this Day the Hardy Privateer of Guern-
